That the Father may be glorified - img.sermonindex.net

Creation exists to show forth His glory; all that is not for His glory is sin, and darkness, and death; it is only in the glorifying of God that the creatures can find glory. What the Son of Man did, to give Himself wholly, His whole life, to glorify the Father, is nothing but the simple duty of every redeemed one. And Christ's reward will be his too. Because He gave Himself so entirely to
