What I did not know was that these orphan trains actually ran for over seventy years, from 1854 until 1929 and that some two hundred thousand children were put on these trains. Of course not all of them found a loving family, many were treated like indentured servants, and many were abused. In present day, Molly who is 17, a foster child, is given community service for attempting to steal a The Orphan Trains | Eastman's Online Genealogy Newsletter

About 1989, the TV series Unsolved Mysteries did an episode on the orphan trains. Mary Ellen Johnson, Springdale, AR, discovered the part they played in the history of that county and she was the source for the episode.
