This is my first experience with a David Baldacci novel and unlike most older readers who will pick up The Finisher, I was truly a tabula rasa. My knowledge of what this book was about was limited and all I knew was that there's a major Sony movie deal, it's written by an acclaimed author, and that it's some some sort of fantasy. I think knowing as little as I did worked in my favor because I

Called Wormwood I was dozing when I heard the scream. It pierced my head like a mortar round, doing terribly befuddling things to my mind, as loud and terrifying as though it were all happening right there and then. After the sound came the vision: the blue, the color blue. It was in a mist like a cloud on the ground. It enveloped my mind
